Charleston Symphony Orchestra's Backstage Pass Opening Night

Charleston, SC – The Charleston Symphony Orchestra will be opening its 2008-09 Backstage Pass season, conducted by Scott Terrell, at 7pm on Friday, October 3, 2008 in Memminger Auditorium, located at 56 Beaufain Street. This year's Backstage Pass series has been reconfigured to provide an intimate and up-close experience of the CSO in the newly renovated Memminger Auditorium. Conducted by Scott Terrell, this series focuses on contemporary music that is paired with classics from the repertoire, in addition to highlighting CSO musicians as soloists.

Program: Fiesta! Four Dances for chamber orchestra (Jimmy Lopez)
Capricorn Concerto for Flute, Oboe and Trumpet (Barber)
Serenade for Strings (Tchaikovsky)

The Backstage Pass Series has general admission seating for $25 per ticket. Tickets can be purchased at the Gaillard Auditorium box office, all Ticketmaster outlets and online at: www.charlestonsymphony.com. (Convenience fees apply.) Student tickets (with ID) are available for $5.
