Charleston Symphony Orchestra's McCrady's Charleston Pops Series
Features Nuevo Tango with Pablo Ziegler

Charleston, SC – The Charleston Symphony Orchestra's McCrady's Charleston Pops Series, conducted by Scott Terrell, features Nuevo Tango with Pablo Ziegler at 8pm on Saturday, February 21, 2009 at the Charleston Music Hall, located at 37 John Street. When it comes to tango, Pablo Ziegler is the authority. Born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and having performed with Astor Piazzolla for ten years, Latin Grammy winning pianist Pablo Ziegler artfully blends classic tango rhythms with jazz improvisations. Don't miss Ziegler with his guitar and bandoneon players. Playful, sensual and romantic – grab your sweetheart for the perfect date!

Individual tickets for the McCrady's Charleston Pops Series range from $20 - $45; student tickets (with ID) are available for $5. Tickets can be purchased at the Gaillard Auditorium box office, all Ticketmaster outlets and online at: www.charlestonsymphony.com. (Convenience fees apply.)

Prior to the performance, audience members can take advantage of the McCrady's courtesy Black Cab service to and from the Gaillard Municipal Auditorium. People interested in parking by the Gaillard and having a pre-performance meal at the restaurant can take advantage of this service by telling McCrady's they would like to use the courtesy Black Cab service when calling to make pre-performance dinner reservations.
